I. C. C. BUCKLES HIGH FREIGHT RATE ON US

COURT ORDER HOLDS HIGH RATES VALID

STATE RAILROAD AND WAREHOUSE COMMISSION POWER-LESS TO ACT

I. C. C. HELD AUTHORITY REGULATING INTRA-STATE RATES

St. Paul, Jan. 16. — (UP) — The state railroad and warehouse commission was restrained by court order today from suspending freight rates set up by the Interstate Commerce Commission for intra-state traffic and restoring lower scales established by the state body in 1915.

An injunction applied for by state railroads was signed by three federal judges late yesterday after hearing arguments on the case. Judges Wilbur F. Booth, John B. Sanborn and J. W. Moynaux granted the order.

The decision was an important victory for Minnesota railroads in their fight to establish authority of the interstate commission in regulation of intra-state rates. The I. C. C. scale is considerably higher than the "common point" rates fixed by the state body.

The "common point" rate order had been operative for 10 years before replaced by a ruling of the interstate commission in the Water-town and Fargo case.

HAROLD McCORMICK

LEAVES VESSEL IN A HURRY AT NEW YORK

New York, Jan. 16. — (UP) — Something happened within five minutes or so today to cause Harold F. McCormick, Chicago multi-millionaire, dash from the deck of the French liner Paris and leave his wife, Mme. Anna Walska to make the crossing alone.

Just what that something was could not be determined, but the fact remains that McCormick fled the vessel five minutes before it was due to sail. His luggage was taken from the Paris and placed on the pier.

As McCormick rushed away he was stopped by a ship news reporter who asked him about the sudden change of plans.

"It's nothing, nothing at all," he replied. "I'm going over next week."

He then stepped into an automobile and was driven away.

Mme. Walska, who previously had been cordial in explaining her intention to enter European opera once more, was less than affable when asked why her husband had not sailed.

She refused to comment.

The McCormicks had reserved separate but adjoining suites on the Paris.

MUKDEN ADVICES

HERALD DISTURBANCE IN CHINESE REPUBLIC

Peking, Jan. 16. — (UP) — Mukden advices today credited Gen. Chang Tao Lin master of Manchuria, as threatening to sever relations with Peking government if the regime becomes more bolshevized.

Indications that the Peking government was leaning more toward Russia have been seen recently by some in the forthcoming visit of Gen. Feng Yuh Siang to Russia. The "Christian general" has long been credited with sympathy with the Russian communist government and he has hitherto been the chief support of the Peking regime.

CARDINAL MERCIER

BATTLING DEATH

Brussels, Jan. 16. — (UP) — Cardinal Mercier, world known church man, is still fighting his battle against death. His condition today was reported unchanged from yesterday. He is very weak.

His physicians, however, said that there was small probability of sudden death, but on the other hand believed that he was likely to pass gradually and peacefully.

The queen visited him briefly this morning and conversed with him.

NEGRO GOES TO HIS DEATH IN CHAIR

Michigan City, Ind., Jan. 15. — (UP) — Edward Stewart, 25, an Indianapolis negro, went to his death in the electric chair at the state prison here today for the murder of Robert Cunningham, a white man. Stewart attacked and robbed Cunningham in Indianapolis a year ago and Cunningham died from his injuries two days after the attack.

Prohibition Celebrates Its Sixth Birthday Today

WOMAN INVADES ANOTHER JOB OF MERE MAN'S DOMAIN

Minneapolis, Jan. 16. — (UP) — Woman has invaded another profession hitherto monopolized almost exclusively by man.

Last night a woman, wearing knickers and with a cap drawn low over her eyes, entered a grocery store here ostensibly to buy a pack of cigarettes. While she was counting change a man walked in, held up the clerk and robbed the cash register while the woman acted as look-out.

They escaped with $65.

ROMANCE IN ROYAL CIRCLES OF ROUMANIA

PRINCESS ILEANA MAY BE ENGAGED TO KING BORIS

NEGOTIATIONS PROCEEDING AT THE ROYAL COURTS

By THOMAS B. MORGAN (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Rome, Jan. 16. — Negotiations are proceeding at the royal courts of Bucharest and Sofia, looking toward the engagement of Princess Ileana, beautiful daughter of Queen Marie and King Ferdinand of Rumania, to King Boris, the youthful monarch of Bulgaria, the United Press learned today on highly reliable authority.

Negotiations for the royal union already had been started last spring when the communist bomb outrages at Sofia gave Boris other than affairs of the heart to consider. The political situation in Bulgaria has now become normal again and peace reigns. Hence, the interrupted negotiations have been resumed.

Princess Ileana, 17, and possessing some of the beauty of her fascinating mother, was once reported a possible matrimonial choice for the Prince of Wales. But the British heir to the throne was at that time not hearkening to any royal alliances, though Queen Marie, sometimes called Europe's most industrious matchmaker, was manifestly hoping to further such a match.

Ileana is a sister of Crown Prince Carol of Rumania, who recently renounced his throne rights for what he called "personal reasons," while the world gossiped that a romance was at the root of his dramatic move.

King Boris, only 32 years old, succeeded to the throne of Bulgaria in October, 1918, upon the abdication of his father, King Ferdinand, of the Saxe-Coburg and Gotha line.

PADLOCK ORDERS FOR EIGHT PLACES ORDERED IN DULUTH

Duluth, Jan. 16. — (UP) — Eight soft drink parlors in northern Minnesota were preparing to close their doors for periods ranging from six months to one year today as result of padlock orders issued by Judge W. A. Cant in federal court here.

Stays were granted in some cases for 30 days.

Establishments to be closed by the padlock orders included three in Thisholm and five in Hibbing, Genola, Royalton, Central Lakes and Duluth.

More than a dozen similar cases are scheduled to come before Judge Cant Monday.

HOUSE RATIFIES WAR DEBT PACT

BELGIAN ARRANGEMENT FINDS COMPLETE FAVOR

Washington, Jan. 16. — (UP) — The house today ratified the United States world war debt commission's agreement with Belgium to fund that nation's indebtedness of nearly $417,000,000 to this country.

The vote was 314 to 24. The agreement goes to the senate now along with the Italian agreement on that nation's $2,000,000,000 debt which was approved yesterday.

Third settlement to be taken up, that of Rumania to fund her $44,000,000 debt, was quickly ratified by a vote of 285 to 38.

The agreement with Estonia to fund that nation's debt of $16,800,000 was also approved. The vote was 255 to 15.

The funding agreement of the Latvian debt of $5,775,000 was also approved by the house by a vote of 240 to 6.

SUSPECTED DOPE ADDICT ATTACKS PAL

PREVIOUSLY OTTO M. HUNTER TRIED TO TAKE HIS OWN LIFE

HUNTER GRABBED CELL MATE, HAMILTON, AND CHOKED HIM

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 16. — (UP) — Apparently desperate because his plea for drugs, to which he is said to be addicted, went unanswered, Otto M. Hunter, suspected agent of a dope ring extending from New York to Milwaukee, today attacked his cell mate, after having been previously prevented from taking his own life.

Hunter, according to jail attendants, grabbed his cell mate, Thomas Hamilton, Duluth, Minn., who is serving a sentence for vagrancy, and choked him.

TRAM CAR OVER CLIFF AND 18 KILLED IN JAPAN

Tokio, Jan. 16. — (UP) — A tram car filled with merry excursionists toppled over a cliff at Myanoshita, a health resort, today, and plunged down 40 yards. Eighteen persons were killed and 12 seriously injured.

"BAN AGAINST THE SALOON IS BLESSING"

ANDREW J. VOLSTEAD, AUTHOR OF PROHIBITION LAW, IN LECTURE

IN EFFECT 6 YEARS, A SHORT TIME TO WIPE OUT AGE-LONG EVIL

St. Paul, Jan. 15. — (UP) — "No greater blessing has come to the American people in generations than the ban against the saloon," Andrew J. Volstead, author and sponsor of the prohibition enforcement law, declared today on this, its sixth anniversary.

"The national prohibition law," he said, "has been in effect six years today, a short time in which to wipe out this age-long evil. The effect it has produced has not met the expectations of some—many hoped and predicted it would prove utterly disastrous, others expected it to accomplish the impossible."

"In my opinion its effect has been all that could be reasonably expected in view of the bitter and persistent opposition of the entrenched liquor interests with their millions for carrying on the fight."

"Even the bitterest enemies of the law concede that the closing of the saloon is a blessing. They do not dare ask for its return, thus admitting the advantages of the law. We are gradually getting rid of the bootlegger and when he is a thing of the past as he will be at no great distance in the future, benefits of the act will be still greater."

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 16. — Prohibition enforcement is still in its infancy, real prohibition enforcement has just about started, Robert Sterling, acting deputy prohibition administrator for the eastern district of Wisconsin, told the United Press today.

"For the past six years authorities have been busy jockeying around to find the best means and methods of enforcing the law that congress enacted. These methods have been studied and are gradually getting in shape where the prohibition law is really being enforced."

"Conditions in Milwaukee and vicinity are improving. Bootleggers and rum runners are finding the law is a bit too hot for them and are gradually dropping by the wayside. Prohibition officers, now I believe have the upper hand and will show better results in the future than they have in the past."

AGED FARGO DOCTOR CONVICTED

CHARGED WITH SECOND DEGREE MURDER IN DEATH OF HOUSEMAID

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 17. — (UP) — Dr. D. C. Darrow, aged Fargo physician, today stands convicted of second degree murder for the death of Jessie Stejchal, a housemaid.

A jury that was out two hours returned a verdict of guilty late yesterday. Expert witnesses had testified that an illegal operation was the cause of the woman's death.

A sentence of 13½ years in the state penitentiary was recommended. Motion for stay of judgment pending an appeal from the verdict will be heard Jan. 28. Meanwhile the defense is preparing its plea for retrial.

Miss Stejchal was found dead in Darrow's office June 28, 1925.

ADAM BROWN, CANADA'S GRAND OLD MAN, DIED

Hamilton, Ont., Jan. 16. — (UP) — Adam Brown, 99 years of age, "Canada's grand old man," died at his home here early today. Adam Brown represented Hamilton in parliament for several terms, was postmaster of this city for many years, honorary president of the Humane society and for 75 years was a director of the Canada Life Insurance Co., during which time he had missed but one regular meeting of the board of directors.

MID WINTER FOREST FIRE IN CALIFORNIA

Santa Barbara, Calif., Jan. 16. — (UP) — A mid winter forest fire was raging in the Santa Barbara national forest 30 miles northwest of here today. More than 500 acres of wood lands have already been laid low by the flames. Hundreds of volunteers are fighting the blaze.

The flames were sweeping toward San Marcos pass, imperiling the Quaker club, Cold Springs lodge, and other country estates of Santa Barbara millionaires.

HEAD OF A "CRIME COLLEGE" IS SHOT DOWN

HARRY SCHNEIDER, "SCHOOLMASTER," SLAIN ON HIS FRONT PORCH

NEIGHBORS IN CHICAGO HEARD GUN SHOT, BUT IGNORED IT

Chicago, Jan. 16. — (UP) — Harry Schneider, known in the underworld as "The Schoolmaster," because of his crime "college," was shot and killed on the front porch of his home early today. The murder was attributed by police to a gangland avenger.

Schneider left his home on a mysterious mission late last night and did not return until this morning, according to his wife. Neighbors heard a gun shot, but kept the code of the district and ignored it.

The police theory was that Schneider was trailed to his home, recalled to the door and killed by someone who wished to deal him punishment for his loose tongue concerning a murder case in which Terry Druggan, ex-Chicago beer baron, now wintering in Florida, was involved.

"A modern Fagan" whose crime school was most complete was the police description of Schneider. It is said his crime laboratory equipment included a tailor's dummy, clothed in latest men's styles and used to develop the technique of pickpocketing. However, Schneider's ethics did not disallow of earning an "honest penny" by turning against his associates, police said.

Schneider had a long police record, including suspicion of the murder of "Big Steve" Wisniewski at Libertyville, in Lake county, north of Chicago, about a year ago.

"Big Steve" was "taken for a ride" and killed by liquor trade enemies, police believed at the time, and State's Attorney A. V. Smith of Lake county caused a charge of murder to be filed against Schneider. Later, it was said, Schneider gave authorities certain information about "Big Steve's" death. The murder charge was not pressed.

Although Druggan's name was mentioned in the Wisniewski case, he was neither detained nor questioned as a result of it.

OFFICIOUS ZION CITY POLICEMAN

MOTORCOP IN TROUBLE FOR RUNNING ACROSS STATE LINE TO ARREST MAN

Kenosha, Wis., Jan. 16. — (UP) — If Zion City motorcycle policemen notice how much it cost Elmer L. Baillie, former speed cop of that city, to go across the state line into Wisconsin and arrest an alleged speeder, they will be very careful to make sure they stay in Illinois to do their arresting.

Baillie, who yesterday came here and pleaded guilty to a charge of malicious destruction of property in connection with his arrest of Henry H. Schufeldt, Milwaukee, on the night of Oct. 23, 1924, was fined $25, the minimum under the Wisconsin law.

But the fine was only a small part of the actual expense connected with the arrest.

Baillie itemized the expenses as follows:

Fine $25.

Court costs $480.

Damages paid to Schufeldt for tires and the inconvenience he caused the Milwaukeean, $1,500.

What he spent in trying to prevent Wisconsin authorities from arresting him, $3,100.

The total cost was $5,105. In addition to all this Baillie took a lecture from the court for having attempted to dodge trial in Wisconsin.

DANGER OF A CABINET CRISIS LOOMS IN FRANCE

By A. L. BRADFORD (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, Jan. 16. — Though Premier Briand, adroit politician, had at least temporarily outwitted the finance commission and avoided a cabinet battle, the danger of a cabinet crisis still existed today.

The finance commission which he had forced to reconsider the Doumer finance tax projects after that body had rebuffed Doumer and his work, met again today but was reported to be in a hostile mood. This made it appear difficult to reach an agreement with the government on disputed phases of the Doumer plan, mostly his stamp tax on sales.

COAL MINE DISASTERS OF THE NEW YEAR

CLAIMED A TOTAL LOSS OF LIVES OF ONE HUNDRED AND TEN MEN

LARGEST NUMBER DEATHS IN ANY SIMILAR PERIOD FOR NEARLY 2 YEARS

Washington, Jan. 16. — (UP) — The coal mine disasters of the new year at Wilburton, Okla., and Fairmount, W. Va., with a total of 110 lives, represents the largest number of deaths in underground work in any similar period for nearly two years.

The Utah mine disaster of March, 1924, which took 152 lives, was the largest in recent American mining history.

The United States mines bureau today estimated the 1925 death toll of coal mine accidents at 2,140 of which 1,740 were in bituminous mines. There were 14 "large accidents" in which five or more persons were killed. The greatest disaster was the Coal Glen, N. C., explosion in which 53 were killed on May 27.

Last year's toll was smaller than in recent years, the 1924 toll being 2,396, the 1923 deaths totalling 2,458. The 1920 accident deaths numbered 2,270.

Wilburton, Okla., Jan. 16. — The earth which has reluctantly given up the dead entrapped in the Deegan-McConnell Mine Number 21 Wednesday was to receive the dead back today and Sunday.

While four of the 91 victims were buried yesterday the real work of burial did not get under way until this morning. It is understood that this work will be completed Sunday.

The mine surrendered two more bodies Friday night, leaving but three bodies unaccounted for.

Of the 101 men entombed, ten escaped alive from the mine.

Fairmount, W. Va., Jan. 16. — Twenty miners of the Jamison Coal and Coke Co. No. 8 mine at Fairmount today are alive and uninjured. The total survivors of Thursday night's disastrous explosion is 20; the death toll is 19.

SCREEN STAR GREATLY IMPROVED

Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 16. — (UP) — After a restful night Barbara La Marr was reported "greatly improved" today. The screen siren is suffering from nephritis, with which she was stricken while convalescing from a nervous breakdown.

DINOSAUR EGGS PLACED ON DISPLAY

EXHIBITED AT FIELD MUSEUM IN CHICAGO TO-DAY

Chicago, Jan. 16. — (UP) — Seven dinosaur eggs ten million years old were placed on display at the Field Museum today. Scientists say the eggs were laid by dinosaurs in the Gobi desert of Mongolia ten million years ago where they remained until discovered a few months ago by Roy Chapman Andrews, leader of the third Asiatic expedition of the local museum.

Dr. Elmer S. Riggs, head of the department of paleontology of the museum, said these are the first dinosaur eggs ever identified by scientists.

"We have always believed dinosaurs laid eggs," Dr. Riggs said, "but not until these specimens were found was it possible to say just what the eggs looked like."

SEN. LA FOLLETTE ASKS SENATE ABOUT MEXICAN AFFAIRS

Washington, Jan. 16. — (UP) — Sen. La Follette, Wisconsin, republican, introduced in the senate today a resolution asking the department of state to furnish the senate all correspondence and papers between the Mexican and the United States governments prior to the recognition of the present Mexican government.

He particularly asked for information dealing with agreements on the exploitation of petroleum deposits and Mexican loans.

La Follette asked for immediate passage of the resolution but an objection of Sen. Curtis, Kansas, republican, the resolution went over.

VERY MUCH ALIVE, NATIONAL ISSUE IN U. S.

LIQUOR QUESTION CONTINUES TO AGITATE AMERICAN PEOPLE

DRYS DEFEND GAINS, WETS TRY TO MODIFY THE LAW

By JOSEPH S. WASNEY (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Jan. 16. — Prohibition celebrated its sixth birthday today and entered the seventh year of its existence, very much alive as a national issue.

Far from being disposed of, as many believed on January 16, 1920, when the eighteenth amendment was proclaimed, the liquor question continues to agitate the nation. Wets and drys are constantly on the alert, the drys to defend their gains, the wets to push every advantage for modification of the law.

Practiced political observers return to Washington with reports that prohibition is the sole national issue that at present interests the people.

The future of the nation's experiment in alcoholic abstinence is shrouded in doubt. Wets claim that the fall elections this year will be fought over the issue and result in the return of a modificationist congress. Drys scoff at the idea pointing to a recent 139-17 test vote in the house in their favor, although the Anti-Saloon League recently held a crisis convention.

The federal government enters the seventh year with a completely revamped enforcement machine committed to a more aggressive policy than ever before, under the direction of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Lincoln C. Andrews of New York, a military man drafted into service from private life to supplant Federal Prohibition Commissioner Roy A. Haines.

A series of rum and extrajudicial treaties with foreign nations is being put into force. President Coolidge has pledged all available resources of the government for the fight and called on the states to assume their concurrent responsibility, some of whom have responded with drastic bone dry laws.

Appropriations have risen to practically $30,000,000 a year, divided between the prohibition service, coast guard and justice department whose failure to secure speedy trial of the flood of liquor cases in the congested federal courts has been blamed for weakening the nation's entire law enforcement fabric.

Economically prohibition is claimed by its friends to have justified itself. Despite the actual government outlay of more than $100,000,000 in appropriations to enforce the law in the past six years and the loss of about $1,500,000,000 in revenues that would have accrued from the alcohol tax had not prohibition been enacted, prohibition has been a financial success, it is claimed.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover, in his annual report in December attributed to prohibition a large part of the credit for the present national prosperity.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 16. — "You must excuse me, sir, I do not use that kind of language," was the reply of Rev. H. C. Hengell, pastor of St. Paul's University Catholic chapel today when asked to comment on the prohibition amendment which the American people have been nullifying for six years.

"Without sympathy for dry agents and bootleggers, who thrive on the prohibition amendment, I do not hesitate to assert that the adoption of this amendment, in the light of its consequences, was a crime against the principles of democracy, a political blunder of the first magnitude. There are far more reasonable and effective ways of dealing with drunkenness, gluttony and immorality than prohibition."

He was taken to the federal prison by automobile and put through the usual preliminaries.

Later he will be given a number and assigned to duties best fitted him, Warden Snook, announced.

PREPARE FOR DAIRY MEET

Three Butter Experts in City Today
Scoring the Many Exhibits of Butter and Cheese

IS STORED AT O'BRIEN'S

Rotary, Lions and Chamber of Commerce Bend Efforts to Make Convention a Success

Today three butter experts were busy scoring the butter and cheese entered in the state-wide competition of the Minnesota State Dairyman's convention which will be held in Brainerd January 19, 20 and 21.

Each exhibit bears a number. The maker of the butter or cheese is unknown to the experts and the results will not be announced until the convention is well in progress.

The butter experts are F. O. Johnson, of St. Paul, member state dairy and food department, supervisor; James Sorenson, St. Paul, former state dairy and food commissioner; Louis Runke, Mankato, with state dairy and food department. This latter department is now consolidated with the state department of agriculture. The butter so far tested has been of excellent quality.

The Rotary club of Brainerd has invited 25 prominent farmers of various farm bureau units to have dinner with the club on Tuesday noon, January 19, at the Ransford hotel. A committee of the Rotary is working with the Lions club to stir up interest among the farmers and dairymen of the county in the coming convention.

This morning the general committee of the convention apportioned work. A smoker is to be given at the Chamber on Tuesday evening and the luncheon will be given at 6 p. m. on Wednesday. Excellent programs have been prepared and several novel features will be introduced.

Chris Heen secretary of the Minnesota State Dairyman's association, is expected in the city on Sunday evening and will aid the local convention committee in perfecting any needed details.

ARCHBISHOP MESSMER SUFFERS HEART ATTACK

Milwaukee, Jan. 16.—(UP)—Archbishop Sebastian G. Messmer, 78, whose life was despaired of a year ago when he was critically ill with a heart attack is again confined to his bed at the archbishop residence here with a slight attack of bronchitis.

Dr. Louis Jermain, personal physician to the aged prelate, ordered him to bed, fearing the cough, which is accompanying the illness, might aggravate the heart condition and result in serious consequences.

"His temperature and pulse is normal," Dr. Jermain said. "He has a slight attack of bronchitis, but his condition is in no way alarming. I am merely ordering him to bed to take precautions against any complications."

His condition this morning was unchanged and he was able to partake of a light breakfast and appeared cheerful.

BOB LA FOLLETTE PRESIDES IN SENATE LIKE A VETERAN

Washington, Jan. 16.—(UP)—The senate for several hours this afternoon was presided over by the youngest senator in the senate—Robert M. La Follette, Jr. It was his first time in the vice president's chair and he ruled like a veteran.

BIRTHDAY OF PROHIBITION IS CELEBRATED

Milwaukee, Jan. 16.—(UP)—Six candles, one for each year that prohibition has been in effect, were lighted at the celebration of five chapters of the W. C. T. U. here.

Several resolutions were adopted at the meeting, one of which demanded of city officials to abolish punch boards and alleged gambling devices.

BERLINS SEEK QUIET IN LONDON

London, Jan. 16.—(UP)—Attempting to avoid the clamor of inquisitive reporters and the glare of publicity, Irving Berlin and his heiress bride today sought quiet by locking themselves in their quarters at the Hotel Carlton. Up to noon they were still barricaded there and had left very strict instructions that they were not to be disturbed by telephone calls or by notes.

Ewert Trial Continues
Faulkton, S. D.—The fight over admission as evidence of exhibits continued today as the trial of A. W. Ewert for embezzlement continued. Wrangling over documents consumed the entire session yesterday. Ewert, former treasurer of the rural credits board, is charged with misappropriation of $211,000.

Beauties Bloom at World's Greatest Coming Out Party

Thirteen of the most fortunate girls of all of the beauties of the United States are to make their bow to world fame February 4, while their peers and peeresses and thousands of movie fans from all of the world look on.

The girls are the thirteen luminaries of Hollywood who have been designated by the Wampas as having the greatest opportunity for screen stardom before the end of 1936. The Wampas is the organization of Western motion picture advertisers. Each year it designates thirteen girls. This designation represents the collective judgment of the shrewdest judges in the movie industry—that the girls will be stars within a year—that their names will blaze in electric lights before theatres the world over.

They are presented in person to the public at the Wampas ball. It is the one great night of the year in which the movie devotees meet all of their favorites face to face and on the dance floor. The event is attended solidly by the stars, the directors, the big producers and hundreds of others—writers, craftsmen and artists who annually create 85 per cent of the world's pictures.

Wampas prophecy of stardom in the past has borne rich fruit. Among those who have made their bows as Wampas stars and who have since achieved world fame are Helen Ferguson, Bessie Love, Colleen Moore, Mary Philbin, Lila Lee, Jacqueline Logan, Lois Wilson, Claire Windsor, Eleanor Boardman, Jobyna Ralston, Dorothy Mackall and Clara Bow. This record has been achieved in spite of the fact that the Wampas stars have been chosen only since 1922.

The beauties of this year come from thirteen states. They will be presented in the Shrine auditorium in Los Angeles. The structure seats 5,500 persons in its amphitheatre and adjoining it is the dance hall that will accommodate 5,000 couples.

What a United Press Reporter Must Know

THE UNITED PRESS was the first American news service to enter Latin America.

Its Bureaus in Buenos Aires and Rio de Janeiro receive news from Europe in five different languages—Italian, French, Spanish, English and Portuguese.

Here it is first translated into English and then re-translated into Spanish and Portuguese.

UNITED PRESS staff men must not only have a thorough knowledge of languages, but they must have a clear understanding of current history and world-wide political and economic questions.

They must know the significance of the Tacna-Arica question in Chile and Peru . . . the trend of politics in New York or North Dakota . . . the present status of the World Court . . . the latest word concerning Wills' challenge for Dempsey's crown . . . the effect of the latest uprising in China.

This newspaper carries UNITED PRESS dispatches from South America

as well as from every other country on the globe.

This great, independent news-gathering organization supplies you with the facts, without bias or prejudice or taint.

USE OF TECHNICALITIES IN DEFENSE

THE defense of some criminals is based on mere technicalities of the law, and the latter are sometimes strained to the breaking point to free an alleged criminal. In view of the recent investigation of crime waves in Chicago and the commonwealth of Minnesota, it is enlightening to read the Minneapolis Tribune discussion of the matter.

"So much has been written on the subject of American crime that it scarcely seems possible to contribute anything new to the subject. The public generally agrees with Chief Justice Taft's remark that the administration of criminal law in the United States is a disgrace to civilization, and are inclined to drop the matter with that. One particular phase of our administration of criminal law, however, has never been correctly understood by the lay mind. Mark O. Prentiss, writing in the October Current History, notes that it should interest, and at the same time may well shock, a number of people to learn of a few reasons why the higher courts set aside convictions in the lower courts. He cites some instances from our state reports:

"1. A defendant was convicted under an indictment charging the theft of $100, 'lawful money.' The conviction was set aside because the indictment did not say 'lawful money of the United States.' The court gave as reason for granting the defendant a new trial the possibility that the victim might have been carrying around Mexican money!

"2. A defendant was convicted of stealing a pistol under an indictment which described the pistol as a 'Smith and Weston' revolver. A new trial was granted because the proof showed that the defendant stole a 'Smith and Wesson' revolver.

"3. The conviction of a defendant as charged with a serious crime was set aside by the higher court because the word 'the' was left out of the concluding phrase of the indictment 'against peace and dignity of the state.'

"4. A conviction for larceny was set aside because the indictment averred that it occurred in a 'storehouse' instead of in a 'storeroom.'

"5. The conviction of a defendant charged with murder was set aside because the letter 'l' had been omitted from the word 'malice' in the indictment.

"6. In another case it was held that an indictment charging that murder had been committed 'with murder aforethought,' and was legally insufficient.

"Mr. Prentiss declares that in America three-fourths of the criminal cases reversed are sent back to the lower courts because of mistakes of form and not of substance.

"With a situation like this, is it any wonder that the American synonym for justice is 'ha ha'?"

COMMUNITY SPIRIT

A TOWN succeeds when its community spirit is fostered. If it is in the ruts and no one works for its success, if no civic organization is interested in the town, why it rapidly attains the importance of the average water tank town.

If a few public spirited men or a few associations are to carry the whole load of public spirit, it reveals the unenviable position of a few doing the work for the many, of a few cast in the roll of workers and the balance sitting tight and riding along.

A community stands or falls according to the amount of public spirit in evidence. People and industries are attracted by and to live communities. No one ever built a factory in a graveyard of dead hopes.

A stranger, visiting any town, senses the spirit of that town. If every one speaks well of his town, it certainly creates a favorable impression. If every resident is busy in criticizing so and so or some organization, it only creates a harmful effect.

Criticism is helpful if it has a constructive side. If you simply tell every one else and every organization what to do and do nothing constructive yourself, you do little to advance your town.

Much community work of a constructive nature passes by unrecognized by the general public. It is for some such reason that public spirited men band together in luncheon clubs, knowing that in that circle their work will in a way receive consideration insofar as every member is pledged to do something for his community.

OLD FIDDLERS RECOGNIZED

WITH the recognition accorded the old fiddler from Maine, who played at Henry Ford's community dance at Detroit, has come a general renaissance of the old time tunes and musicianship.

The American Legion gives a radio program over WCCO, St. Paul-Minneapolis, on Friday evening, January 22, and four old fiddlers may compete. H. C. Petty, of Kimball, age 80, was one of the first to enter. The other contestants are E. P. Francisco, Lake City, age 96; R. B. Webb, Glyndon, age 80; Martin Ness, Cook, age 85. We think there is interest enough in the event and WCCO is generous enough with its station, to permit all four fiddlers to play their tunes, and not restrict the playing to the oldest man.

THE Minnesota Cooperative Egg and Poultry exchange, which was organized as the first experiment of the kind just a year and a half ago, has closed its first full year with a business of about $3,000,000.

NEW YORK MILLS dedicated its new creamery on January 7. Just in time to enter a butter exhibit at the Minnesota State Dairy-men's convention at Brainerd.

THE baby insurgents of the senate, Senator La Follette and Senator Nye, are showing considerable independence.

DR. ROY SMITH'S SATURDAY NIGHT TALKS

By the REV. ROY L. SMITH, D. D.
Pastor Simpson M. E. Church, Minneapolis

THE CLOSED MIND

The unventilated house is full of contagion. The closed mind is an incubator of social contagion.
It is from the closed minds that prejudices arise—racial, religious, political, industrial and personal. Wars, theological controversies, demagoguery, labor disturbances and feuds are the symptoms.
Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, president of the Federal Council of Churches, once said, "In building up your denominational walls to shut yourself in, it is a good idea occasionally to climb to the top and look out to see how many good people you have shut out."
The mind that is open to conviction—open to new ideas—seldom starts wars, controversies or ill will. Such a mind seldom breeds trouble in a community.
It is the unventilated mind that incubates the hatreds, jealousies, animosities and bitterness.
Every politician ought to read at least one paper published by the opposition. Every theological contender ought to take time to read something written by the other side. Every laboring man and every employer should know what the other side is thinking. Then let us meet facts with facts and not with threats and bluster.
The necessity for producing facts will usually have a cleansing effect on any mind. No man, honestly in search of the truth, ever gets angry.
The side which begins calling hard names admits thereby its lack of arguments. Sarcasm, billingsgate, invective and profanity are the refuge of the man who has no facts to support his assertions.
Get acquainted with the opposition's ideas, they may prove useful.
Keep an open mind for the sake of your own mental health.

Public Servants
In 1835 civil service reform was debated and Daniel Webster expounded the following proposition: "The theory of our institution is plain; it is that government is an agency created for the good of the people and that every person in office is the agent and servant of the people. Offices are created not for the good of those who are to fill them, but for the public convenience."

Satisfied With Work
When despondent, John Sargent, the painter, used to look at a little panel of self-painted roses and say to himself: "Well, John, there's one thing you did in your life that is worth while."

Pale Green Silk Dress Elaborately Trimmed

Here is shown an attractive pale green silk dress elaborately trimmed with Chinese embroidery and ribbon bands of darker green. Over this is worn a black velvet jacket fastened with gold buttons. The long tight sleeves end in a cuff of the same embroidery covering the skirt. A black satin hat completes the costume.

Drecol's Models Among New Season's Favorites

Drecol's models have proved extraordinarily successful this season, writes a Paris correspondent in the New York Times. More ultramodern modern productions have been dressed by them than ever before. Every one of Drecol's dresses, no matter on what stage, could also be worn in a drawing room with perfect good taste. They have been popularizing three special features: Black, more or less neglected by most of the other great houses; high necks, chokers on day dresses—moderately high ones on evening frocks, in a transparent substance, unlined above the bust line or backless; and a futurist note in colored decorations.
The "futurist" note is the most original, and is extremely cleverly used. On one smart afternoon gown, for instance, in ninon, with a high neck and transparent back, embroidery of vivid colors, in a pattern strongly suggesting tongues of flame, is the decoration. Another is in hand-painted material of the so-called futurist colors, beautifully blended, and relieved by black panels.
Many original methods of dealing with the high neck have been devised. For instance, an afternoon frock of burgundy-colored ninon, embroidered daintily in gold, has a long, wide scarf cut in one piece with the front of the bodice. This scarf is brought up to the chin, swathed round the neck, the two ends crossed at the back and allowed to hang down the front.

Gay Boutonnieres and Large Single Flowers
Gay boutonnieres and large single flowers add the necessary touch of color to fur and cloth coats. Geraniums and chrysanthemums in their natural colors and gardenias in all shades and tints are sponsored. The tendency toward natural coloring is more noted than ever before. In this respect the feather flowers have an advantage over the others because of their adaptability to dyes and their petal-like texture. A lovely example of feather flower is to be had in a large magnolia of a pinkish white with a soft purple center and foliage of green. One of these is sufficient trimming on a velvet evening gown. Durable flowers perched on the outer edge of the shoulder, with stem appearing in front or back may be used to finish an otherwise plain neckline. The one new thing about flowers is their placing. This season they will repose close to the neck, preferably on a line with the ear.

Waxed Georgette Is New Material; in Black Only

There has been invented a new material that comes in black only. It is effectively used in more than one model, but especially in one called "l'Inconnu." It is "waxed georgette," treated exactly as waxed satin is treated. It has the same sheen, but of course is transparent. In one case it is embroidered with one very vivid parrot. In another it is used with circular trimming of waxed ribbons.
A queer little yoke, which includes the armhole, is a device of one firm for many of their morning dresses. These are often carried out in two blending materials, as, for instance, corded silk and accordion-plaited marquisette, fawn and black checked georgettes or other novelties very popular with the French.

Green Gains Greater Prestige

Delicate tones of green are much in evidence in fashions, used alone or in combination with other shades. It is particularly effective with black, a color combination that appears in the plaited chiffon underskirt worn with a tunic of black satin. Touches of green are repeated in the collar which slips through slashes to hang almost to the waist.

Light Silks Are Worn at Resorts—for Spring

Light silks are being worn at the southern resorts this season, and are making a bid for spring favor. These charming outfits are of bright colors. This American print reflects the general atmosphere in resort fashions.

Dyed Furs Worn With Green, Red and Purple

In recent seasons, when black, brown and gray provided the color chart from which most street apparel was chosen, there was little difficulty in uniting fur and fabric. Later, when the bright shades crowded natural tones into the background, it was taken for granted that fur had no choice but to contrast with the material. Now, however, the use of dyed pelts, colored in any shade, permits this form of trimming to enter actively into the color scheme. Flat furs like mole and coney are best adapted to the new treatment. Their silky, close-piled hair appears to advantage in the greens, reds and purples prominent among new colorings.

Colored fur trimmings are being especially fostered for southern resort wear, and are in evidence in current sports developments, generally blending with tweed or novelty worsteds. One three-quarter coat designed for the South is of a woven brown and gold-worsted cloth in a pattern suggesting darned embroidery. A collar of deep yellow mole accents the bright tone of the material. Another coat, full length and very slightly flared, is made of orange-colored Leda cloth, with a wide panel of matching mole, finished at the neck with an unusual little turnover of the cloth. The same "Leda," or soft cashmere velours in mulberry color, is trimmed with a long stole collar and deep gauntlet cuffs of purple mole.

Interesting Trimmings for New Winter Apparel

Among the various revivals of old-fashioned trimmings is ball fringe, which has been a stranger for a long time in the world of fashion. With the popularity of the bolero in frocks for young girls the fringe adds a touch that is very pleasing.
Another style of trimming that adds an unusual feature to the frocks of flannel and jersey is the crochet chain stitch, in cotton, silk or wool as desired. The chain can be used in design, being sewed to heavy background and made in solid effects. Leaves can be put in floral designs by using green cotton, and when a bright touch is wanted colored beads can be introduced into the pattern.

Odd effects are shown in the new French frocks, among them dresses of rich velvet, combined with sheer georgette and edged in bands of fur. Colored embroideries have established themselves very firmly in the season's preferred trimmings, many shadings being interwoven in one design, with tinsel to give an especially desirable touch of brightness. The band of fur is among the season's most persistent fads, being used in every kind of skin as an edge for both coats and frocks. For the cloth dresses there are many suggestions for trimming in leather, and for all wear much handwork is seen in the way of unique applique.

Biggest Pie 168 Pounds

The record Christmas pie was made in 1770 for Sir Henry Grey, of London. It measured three yards round and weighed 168 pounds.

Beware "Toeing In"

Americans are becoming a "toeing-in" race, but, unlike the Indian who toes-in because of expediency in walking along narrow paths in the woods, the white man gets that way from constant automobile driving. Continual use of accelerator and clutch cause a tendency to pigeon-toe.

Leads the World in Motor Car Value

On View Here!

"Enclosed Car" Motor

Introduced at New York Show

Our showrooms are now devoted to a Special Nash Exhibit that practically duplicates the great New York Show display.

Here you may view personally the important new Nash developments—particularly the great new Nash "Enclosed Car" Motor.

In creating this new motor Nash deliberately disregarded general precedent which was accustomed to shape the capabilities of a motor to open car requirements.

On the contrary, Nash especially engineered this motor to provide the finest calibre of performance for the enclosed car.

In utter smoothness, in quietness and in phenomenal acceleration, this new "Enclosed Car" Motor clearly outdistances all that has gone before.

It creates an absolutely new standard of enclosed car performance that will prove a revelation to you—for it is surpassingly superior in every phase of operation.

There's a full 25% greater volume of symmetrically smooth power—power without a single "rough spot" thruout the entire range.

And the speed with which you accelerate is lightning-like—23% faster than formerly in going from any given rate to a higher rate.

Yet your travel-cost per gallon of fuel is held down to the old low level.

And so expertly is the motor designed and constructed that under average driving conditions you may drive it to a mileage high in the five-figure class without further thought except to change oil at the usual periods.

WALLY PIPP DROPPED BY THE YANKEES

JAKE RUPPERT SENDS HIM TO THE CINCY REDS

JUST ANOTHER CASE OF BEING "TRANSPORTED DOWN THE RIVER"

VERY LITTLE SENTIMENT FINDS LODGING IN BIG LEAGUE BASEBALL

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Jan. 16.—With a few tears and a sigh or two, Col. Jake Ruppert, owner of the New York Yankees, dropped a sentence into the mail today that sent Wally Pipp, his veteran first baseman to the Cincinnati Reds.

When New York ball players are discarded and shipped to other less prosperous clubs they have a way of saying that they have been transported down the river.

There is very little sentiment in big league baseball. It is a cold proposition and when the legs of a respected veteran slow him up or when the peg leaves the arm, the open door is the only reward. With Wally Pipp and Jake Ruppert, however, the case was different. Pipp was the only player on the Yankee club who was a regular when Ruppert and his daring former partner, Col. Huston, paid a million dollars for a baseball name.

Baseball men, wise in the ways of the game, said that the two colonels were crazy when they bought the Yankees. They said they were mad when they opened the pocket book for Babe Ruth and they wanted a lunacy commission appointed when they built a ball park that would seat 60,000 or more.

But the colonels made their critics weep. The Yankees won pennants. The Babe hit home runs day after day, but it was Wally Pipp who was the real punch in the pinch.

Urban Shocker, who is now a member of the Yankee pitching staff, once told the writer when he was working for the St. Louis Browns, that Pipp was the hardest batter in the American league to pitch to.

"You can take your chances on Ruth," he said, "but you can never do that with Pipp."

In addition to being a high class ball player and a gentleman, Pipp was ranked as one of the best two-fisted fighters in the league. He never carried a chip on his shoulder but when pressed he knew how to take care of himself.

It is related that Babe Ruth told Pipp one afternoon that he didn't like the way Pipp was running the bases and the Babe went to the hotel after the game with two shiners and a cut lip. From that time on the Babe and Wally were fast friends.

There is a lot of baseball left in Pipp and he certainly will plug up the hole that the Cincinnati club has had at first base.

FEDERAL RECREATION COMMITTEE

AIM TO ORGANIZE ONE TO SUPERVISE ALL AMATEUR SPORTS

ALSO TO PREPARE FOR OLYMPIC GAMES OF 1928

Detroit, Jan. 16.—(UP)—A federal recreation commission to supervise all branches of amateur sport in America, and to prepare for the Olympic games of 1928 is the first definite development to come from the National Amateur Baseball Federation convention here.

The proposal is sponsored by Clayton C. Townes, former mayor of Cleveland and is a revival of a previous movement that was side tracked by the war. Clifford Martin, Cincinnati delegate and G. H. S. Gouley of Cleveland, have been appointed a committee of two to place the proposal before authorities at Washington.

"A fact not generally known," Townes said, "is that last year for the first time in the history of baseball the sale of golf supplies exceeded the sale of baseball supplies."

"Our plan contemplates a request for an initial appropriation of $100,000 by congress to finance establishment of state subsidiaries. A conference will be sought with Secretary of Commerce Hoover and the proposal pushed at the present session of congress."

DELANEY WINS 10 ROUND GO OVER FITZSIMMONS

LATTER IS SON OF FORMER HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION OF THE WORLD

DELANEY WINS UNDER HANDICAP OF ALMOST 20 POUNDS

New York, Jan. 16.—(UP)—Under a handicap of almost 20 pounds, Jack Delaney, Bridgeport light-heavyweight, won a 10-round decision in Tex Rickard's Garden last night from Bob Fitzsimmons, son of the former heavyweight champion of the world.

It was a slow uninteresting bout that caused some of the 12,000 spectators to leave the arena before the last round. Delaney tried to make it a fight but Fitzsimmons, with the exception of the last two rounds, did very little but defensive work.

Delaney got over his noted right hand in the fourth round and spilled Fitzsimmons on the canvas. It was the first time he had ever been knocked off his feet.

Joe Dundee, Baltimore won a 10-round decision from Jack McVey, New York. Frank Moody England, won a 10-round decision from Benny Ross, Buffalo.

WHAT MAY HAPPEN IN SPORTS THIS YEAR

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Jan. 16.—Having consumed the reviews of all the successes and failures of 1925 on international sport fields it might be in order now to make a few guesses on what may happen this year.

Considering the various classes at random and with a willingness to assume liability for any false predictions, the following is submitted:

Jack Dempsey will retain the heavyweight championship of the world by remaining unofficially in retirement.

Harry Wills will spend another year seeking sympathy for his hard luck. The Pittsburgh Pirates will win the National league pennant because it is a great young ball club that has just found itself and that has gained the necessary confidence.

Bill Tilden will retain the world's tennis championship because there is no rival player within three points of him.

Bobby Jones will win the national amateur golf championship because he has the game and the class.

Helen Wills will win the national woman's tennis championship because she is far ahead of the field and she may win the world's championship if Mlle. Lenglen consents to meet her.

Red Grange will not return to his studies at Illinois. Rogers Hornsby will win the National league batting championship for the seventh time because no one can hit like he can.

Gil Dobie will say next fall that Cornell has the worst football squad he ever saw.

Harvard will kick about the football committee. The Yale crew will give Harvard another fine pasting in their annual race on the Thames.

Princeton will have another football team. Harry Greb will retain the world's middleweight championship and Mickey Walker will have to watch his step and pick his spots.

Charley Rosenberg will lose the bantamweight title. Paul Berlenbach will hold himself open to meet any man or animal in the field.

Walter Hagen will make as much money as any of the golfers. Nurmi will be shy of American promoters. Commissioner Landis will go south to inspect the major league training camps.

Connie Mack will hope for the American league pennant. Babe Ruth will fan several times. Baseball will not cry for rain during the world's series.

Yale will cover the press box in the Bowl ??? E. K. Hall, chairman of the rules committee, will not demand an All-American team.

Everybody will squawk about Army-Navy football tickets. All hands should have a good time.

THUNBERG LOST IN FINAL SPRINT

FINLAND'S OLYMPIC CHAMPION FINISHES BAD THIRD IN RACE

New York, Jan. 16.—(UP)—After holding the lead for 36 of the 42 laps and setting a new world's record of 6:13 4-5 for two miles, Clas Thunberg, Finland's Olympic champion, was lost in the final sprint and finished a bad third behind Joe Moore, New York, and Charley Gorman, Canada, in a three mile race last night in Rickard's Garden.

Moore, the international indoor champion, skated the distance in 9:25 and he was three-quarters of a lap ahead of Thunberg at the finish, with the Canadian 15 yards behind him.

Imagine a Telephone— which would connect with only half the numbers in the book

IT wouldn't be more annoying than a radio set that receives only half the stations.

Each broadcasting station is assigned a definite wavelength, but the ordinary radio set receives wave-lengths only from 550 to 240 meters. There are now over a hundred stations broadcasting on less than 240 meters not reached by these other receivers.

You don't need two sets to get all these stations, present and future. The new Grebe Synchronphase will tune them all because it receives from 550 down to 150 meters, thanks to an exclusive invention—the Low-Wave Extension Circuits.

SUNDAY CONCERT

Miss Stell Andersen, Soloist of Brainerd Musical Club, at New Park Theatre

Miss Stell Andersen, noted pianist, is the soloist at the Sunday afternoon concert under Brainerd Musical club auspices at the New Park theatre tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. A splendid program will be given.

The Aldrich, N. Y. Times, has this to say of Miss Andersen:

Stell Andersen, slender in Melisande draperies, forceful within gracious limits of womanly strength, made an artistic debut as pianist last evening in Carnegie Hall. An Iowan born, she is still a daughter of the Vikings, as indicated by her playing of Grieg's "Ballade" and Palmgren's "May Night" midway in her programme. Miss Andersen had won a musical house, however, from the start, in the Bach-Busoni D major Prelude and Fugue, while to Liszt's B minor Sonata she gave the elegance of rare repose of eloquent pauses, haunting harmonies, mellowing shadows in the high lights of Liszt.

REV. PLUMMER AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Pastor of Prominent Chicago Church to Preach There Sunday Morning

HEADS DIOCESAN CHURCH

Has Had Wonderful Experience in Lines of Church Work And Uplift

Sunday morning, January 17th, the Reverend John Francis Plummer, D. D., Pastor of the Diocesan church of the Epiphany of Chicago, Illinois, will preach at the regular 11 o'clock service at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Juniper and Seventh streets.

The Reverend Mr. Plummer is one of the outstanding clergy of the Episcopal church in Chicago and because of his very position as head of the Diocesan church is the head of the largest staff of clergy and church workers in the entire city of Chicago. Three years ago, upon the burning of the Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul, the bishop and diocese of Chicago took over the large parish church of the Epiphany on the west side of Chicago and near to the old cathedral and it has since been used for all of the cathedral purposes and has as the rector, Bishop Anderson.

Reverend John Francis Plummer

Inasmuch as it is not a cathedral in reality the Reverend Mr. Plummer cannot be appointed as the dean but for all purposes he serves as such and holds the same offices the former dean, the present bishop of Oregon, held when he was in Chicago. The Reverend Mr. Plummer is also superintendent of the Episcopal City Missions, which carries on a very unique work in twenty of the public and city institutions as well as a number of private institutions. For the purpose of carrying on all of this work there is a staff of four clergymen, eight deaconesses, with other full time paid workers, making a total of twenty paid workers and having assisting them several hundred volunteer workers in the various institutions.

Sunday morning the subject of the sermon will be: "The Light of the World." It is expected that the Reverend Mr. Plummer will tell some of the experiences in the religious services conducted in many of the institutions of Chicago such as the Cook County hospital which has four thousand beds, the jails and work houses and homes of correction with their several thousand inmates, the insane asylums and such other private institutions as the Cathedral Shelter—(which is the hobo hotel) and the large institutional work at the social center of Chase House—which immediately adjoins the Diocesan church of the Epiphany, on Ashland Blvd. and Adams St., which thirty years ago was the exclusive residential part of the city while today it is the slums and all of the work of the church is carried on in this densely populated section.

Next Wednesday night, the Men's club of St. Paul's Episcopal church of Brainerd is serving a complimentary supper to all of the ladies of the parish, with the men of the club making all of the arrangements and preparing and serving the supper themselves and having the ladies as the guests of honor. At this supper the Reverend Mr. Plummer will be the speaker of the evening and has been asked to tell of some of the social service sides of the work which is carried on in connection with all of the religious work. The toastmaster for the evening will be Judge L. B. Kinder, the president of the Men's club, and the committee for the supper will be Messrs. J. W. Davidson, A. C. Ebert, H. J. Carlson and the dining room will be in charge of Clyde E. Parker.

Drama League

The Drama League will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. A. Beise, 621 North Fourth street. Mrs. W. A. Erickson will read "Everybody's Husband," by Cannan.

"ENCLOSED CAR" MOTOR

New Nash Development Viewed as Remarkable Engineering Achievement

An exhibit that is attracting pronounced local interest is the new Nash "enclosed car" motor being shown to the public for the first time. It was initially introduced at the New York Motor show and proved to be an outstanding attraction. The reason for the discussion centering around this engineering development is the fact that Nash has here approached and solved the problem of providing power, speed, acceleration, quietness, and long life in a passenger car engine from a standpoint entirely new to the industry. In fact Nash engineers have reversed precedent in seeking to improve upon the performance standards of today. Grandt Bros. are the local agents of the Nash cars.

BRAINERD 11, CROSBY HIGH 15 IN LAST NIGHT'S GAME

THE HIGH SCHOOL GYMNASIUM
HOUSES LARGE ATTEND-ANCE

FIRST HALF WAS 10 TO 6 IN BRAINERD'S
FAVOR

Brainerd was defeated by a score of 15 to 11 in the Crosby-Brainerd high school basketball game held at the high school gymnasium last evening.

The first half ended ten to six in Brainerd's favor and in the second half Tribur, stationary guard of the Brainerd team, was put out of the game for four personal fouls. That broke up the playing spirit of the game and up to that time Brainerd was leading, but after that Crosby scored enough points to win the game. Brainerd made one point in the second half.

Brainerd did not have its regular team, it being rather a patched-up affair as two of the regulars were gone. Marshall at center played a good game, but had hard luck on his shooting. Westcott and Pomeroy for Crosby played a good game. Adams of St. Cloud refereed the game.

In the preliminary game the mixed grade defeated the 8th grade, 4 to 1.

NEW SWIMMING POOL DEDICATED

Ann Arbor, Mich., Jan. 16.—(UP)—The Michigan swimming team dedicated the new union pool here by defeating Wisconsin 49 to 20, taking six out of eight first places and four second places. The Wolverines also won the water polo match, 10 to 1.

Wheatley and Hershberger of Wisconsin won the diving and 50-yard spring events, while Batter, Darnell, Shorr and Sampson of Michigan, won the 150, 100, 200 breast and 440-yard events, respectively. Michigan also won the 300 medley and 200 relay. No records were broken.

Iowa Wrestlers Won Over Wisconsin Madison, Wis.—Iowa wrestlers eked out an 8 to 6 victory here last night when they met the University of Wisconsin wrestling team.

RED GRANGE INVADES PACIFIC

BARNSTORMING CHICAGO BEARS TO PLAY IN LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, Jan. 16.—(UP)—Red Grange invaded the Pacific coast today with his barnstorming Chicago Bears and seemed assured of financial success regardless of the outcome of the football game.

Every seat in the Los Angeles coliseum was sold several hours before game time, which assured a crowd of 75,000 spectators.

But it was a tough battle that Red and his bears faced. The Los Angeles Tigers are under the leadership of George Wilson, the spectacular "husky" from Washington, who was virtually a unanimous choice for the All-American team.

As most of Grange's team are midwestern players and Wilson's team is composed of Pacific coast products, fans saw a chance to compare the football of the two areas.

Early Colonial D

The expression "old colony" has been applied to that part of Massachusetts included in the Plymouth colony, but it was used to designate the 1602 Plymouth colony, which had been independent of the bay colonies, which were united in one province the name Massachusetts.

MOVEMENT AGAINST CIGARET SMOKING

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO CON-DEMS SMOKING AMONG
CO-EDS

Chicago, Jan. 16.—(UP)—A movement against widespread practice of cigarette smoking among college co-eds was launched at the University of Chicago today.

An editorial appearing in the Daily Maroon, student paper, denounced the practice as "infringing on man's hitherto exclusive vice, forgetting that women owe a debt to civilization."

"Not satisfied with assimilating man's virtues, woman apparently feels called upon to infringe upon his vices," the editorial said. "She forgets that civilization rests upon her small shoulders."

The editorial brought forth declarations from student leaders, most of whom endorsed it and lamented the practice of smoking by co-eds.

"It is a filthy habit," said Graham Magee, member of the student council, "and certainly doesn't add to the grace of woman."

Fred Handschy, editor of the Circle, another student publication, objected for another reason.

"If they must smoke I wish they'd buy their own instead of expecting the men to provide them with their supplies," he said.

Woman Does Poise Feat

Mrs. Diana Watts, an English woman who is lecturing throughout the world to children and adults on better posture, electrified an audience in London recently by balancing herself with her left foot on a small globe, with her right foot horizontal and in a straight line with her left arm, which held a bow, while she shot two arrows without losing her equilibrium. Mrs. Watts has been teaching men golfers how to improve their stance by developing physical poise, which she says is not only the secret of dancing but of walking comfortably and having a clear mind.

Paris Loses Landmark

Another historic Paris landmark has disappeared—a linen shop in the Marais quarter, where tradition has it, Mme. de Pompadour, favorite of Louis XV, used to deal. Over the door was a sign worthy of preservation. Before the revolution the shop was adorned with an effigy of John the Baptist, bearing the words "Au Saint Jean-Baptiste." In 1793, all names of saints being vigorously proscribed by law, the proprietor hung up instead the figure of a monkey wrapped in batiste and inscribed "Au Singe en Batiste." It is hoped that this sign will be placed in the Carnavalet museum.

HEAVY SELLING CONTINUES

New York, Jan. 16.—(UP)—Friday's heavy selling was continued in the week end session and further declines took place in stocks which had played important roles in the upswing over the Christmas holidays.

It was increasingly evident that the reaction was due to an overbought condition in the general list rather than to any adverse developments in business conditions as the weekly mercantile reviews reported a condition of healthy prosperity in general trade and industry.

But the market had obviously reached a state where further progress on the upside was impeded by the presence of an over crowded speculative following which rendered the general list vulnerable to bearish attacks. Following up their successes of the previous day, professionals forced additional liquidation in U. S. Steel, American Can, Hudson, General Motors, Dupont and other industrial leaders. Many of these stocks reached new lows on the movement and the price trend in the two hour session was mainly downward.

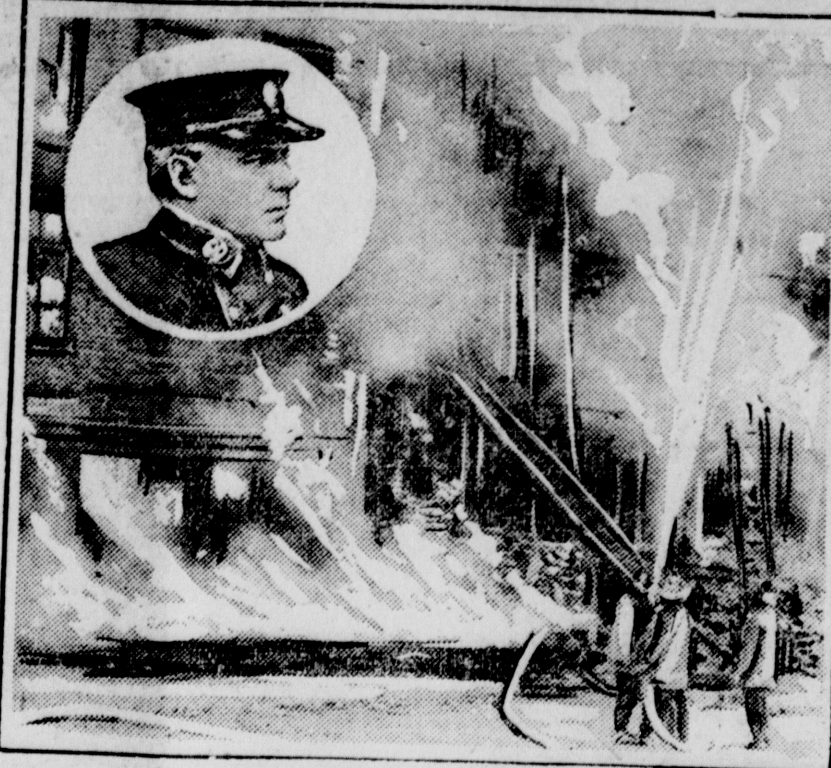

The market closed lower.

"SHORT SALES" ON COTTON INVESTIGATED

Washington, Jan. 16.—(UP)—Hearings on the Caraway bill to prohibit "short sales" in the cotton and grain market opened before the senate agricultural committee today with an announcement by Secretary of Agriculture Jardine that he was opposed to the bill.

Jardine's position was stated in a letter to Sen. Norris, Nebraska, republican, chairman of the committee, in which the secretary said that his department "feels that the hedging function of the futures exchanges is of real necessity in the present day development of our market for cotton and grains and that it should not be destroyed until other means of accomplishing the same are discovered and established."

"Able's Irish Rose"

An attraction that is commanding the interest and attention of managers and theatregoers as well, on account of its widespread popularity, and is daily adding new pages to theatrical history owing to the lengthly runs it is necessary to make in each city in order to accommodate the amusement seekers, and which the management of the New Park theatre is most fortunate in having secured for an engagement of one night on Monday, Jan. 18, is Anne Nichols famous comedy, "Able's Irish Rose," of which she is author as well as producer. The company to be seen here is the same that recently closed an engagement of forty-two weeks at Los Angeles, California.

A large cast of carefully chosen New York actor artists assisted by a bevy of pretty bridesmaids, and an exact and heavy duplication of the New York scenic production is carried in a special 70-foot baggage car, assuring a noteworthy production of "Able's Irish Rose."

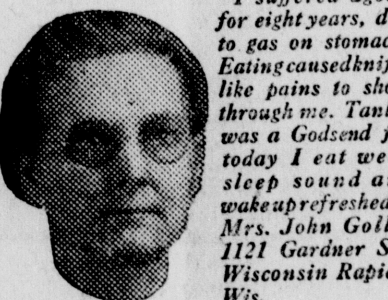

Raymond Griffith, he of the million dollar personality and shiny "topper," has been elevated to stardom by the folks who turn over their hard-earned money at the boxoffice, and he's sure to vindicate the confidence the fans have in him with his first comedy as a full-fledged Paramount star—"He's a Prince!" portraying the life of a young European Prince during his working hours.
